SELLING HOMEMADE FOOD 101

"A guide to understand the opportunities made available through the Montana Local Food Choice Act"

Selling Homemade Food 101: MT Local Food Choice Act

An overview of how to sell homemade food items under the MT Local Food Choice Act - aka SB199 - its purpose, regulations, and exemptions. This session will be led by Associate Professor and MSU Extension Food & Family Extension Specialist, Dr. Brianna Routh.

Nov. 12th @ 11:30 am - 1:00 pm
Register HERE: [us02web.zoom.us]

Selling Homemade Food 101: Raw Milk - MT Law, Testing, and Safety

Join MT Dept. of Livestock Bureau Chief, Alicia Love, and DPHHS Public Health Sanitarian, Sadie Overlie, as they discuss the regulations and testing requirements for selling raw milk under SB199. We will also be joined by a MT raw milk producer to share their experience and answer any questions around navigating this market successfully and safely.

Feb. 11th @ 11:30 am - 1:00 pm
Register HERE: [us02web.zoom.us]

Selling Homemade Food 101: Food Law & Liability

Limited regulations does not mean limited liability under SB199. This webinar will provide an overview of what legal and liability considerations you need to keep in mind as a home-food producer. This session will be led by Montana Department of Agriculture Chief Attorney, Anna Kesckes.

May 13th @ 11:30 am - 1:00 pm
Register HERE: [us02web.zoom.us]

Selling Homemade Food 101: 1,000 Bird Exemption Overview & Considerations

Although the sale of meat and products containing meat is not allowed under SB199, the 1,000 Bird Exemption provision allows poultry producers to slaughter and process up to 1,000 birds per year. This session will be led by Department of Livestock Compliance Specialist, James Peterson.

Aug. 12th @ 11:30 am - 1:00 pm
Register HERE: [us02web.zoom.us]

MONTANA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

For in-person 1:1 support and direct conversation for all sessions, connect with your local FADC at agr.mt.gov/Food-and-Ag-Development-Centers.
In person offerings may be limited.

MONTANA FOOD & AGRICULTURE DEVELOPMENT NETWORK